

Miscellaneous. - to be arranged.

Abolitionists have been charged with being traitors to their country, & traitors to its government; - traitors to a govt. whose corner-stone is slavery, they may be, to a govt. wh. aims to dethrone God by ~~fighting against~~ & eternal principles of justice & freedom & humanity, - thus charge they will not be anxious to deny, But that they are enemies of their country they will deny, they do deny. They take not of fickle breath of mobs, & selfish cry of changing parties, to decide this. They know - if man can know anything - tht. to demand ~~in all sincerity & honesty, etc.~~ justice for ~~done to~~ all, freedom<sup>to</sup> be made & professed as it is; & declared birth right of every man, tht. right shall prevail over wrong, mercy be exalted above cruelty & violence, they know tht. to do this, in all sincerity & integrity of purpose, is not to inflict an injury on <sup>a</sup> country, on her property or <sup>a</sup> stability of her noblest institutions, but ~~altogether~~ ~~for a cause,~~ ~~This~~ is to serve one's Country, as a true friend,

Do you say this is making difficulties with S. South, & disturbing peace? I reply, not wanting but as in sight of God - there ought to be difficulties there ought to be no harmony till Right prevails.

God has said "There is no peace to the wicked", we ought not to seek a peaceful alliance & harmonious cooperation with a buy and sellas of human flesh, sinews, muscles, & so far as possible, minds, affections,

There sat one here in this audience Mr. P. M. who, till 21 years ago, was a slave.
